

Floyd Uitermarkt and Mike VerMeer customer's of Jim DeBoer of AGRILAND FS, Inc.

Floyd Uitermarkt and Mike Ver Meer farm and operate a cattle feeding operation which they have been involved with for 28 years. They use nine John Deere equipment and use 8,000 gallons of diesel fuel a year.

Salesman, Jim DeBoer of Agriland has been delivering fuel to them for many years and used other additive. But in the spring of 2007 they went with Dieselelex Gold and have been very happy with it.

They have noticed an increase in horsepower and an increase in economy along with quicker starts.
